'Service Above Self'

Rotary is

An organisation of business and professional leaders united world-wide who provide community and humanitarian service, encourage high ethical standards in their businesses and professions and help build goodwill, peace and understanding throughout the world.

Rotary is a volunteer organisation with over 1.5 million service-minded people belonging to in excess of 32,000 Rotary Clubs in 168 countries world-wide.

Each Rotary Club meets weekly so that members may discuss the Club's service goals and enjoy each other's fellowship. Membership is by invitation and is on the basis of representation of businesses and professions through a system that ensures membership from a wide cross section of the community.

Rotary International is the association of all Rotary Clubs world-wide.

Rotary Clubs involve themselves in a wide range of community, cultural and environmental projects to meet the specific needs of their communities and assist in National and International humanitarian and social programs.

Youth is a particular focus of Rotary and as an example its Youth Exchange Program annually sends over 6,000 young people of secondary school age abroad for a school year, living with host Rotary families and experiencing another language, culture and society first hand.

Rotary Foundation provides world-wide community service and annually spends in excess of $15 million annually to promote international understanding and peace through educational and humanitarian programs. Polio-Plus Immunization Campaign is an ongoing Foundation program that aims at eradicating Polio world-wide and to date some $900 million has been expended to achieve that goal.

The Beginnings of Rotary

Today, Rotary is well known throughout the world for its dedication to service and international goodwill. Changing the world through service, however, was hardly uppermost in the mind of Paul P. Harris when he founded the organization in 1905. Harris, a lawyer in Chicago, Illinois, USA, had been raised in a rural village in Vermont. He envisioned a new kind of club for professionals that would kindle the fellowship and friendly spirit he had known in his youth.

Paul P. Harris
1868 - 1947

On the evening of 23 February 1905, Harris invited three friends to a meeting. Silvester Schiele, a coal dealer, Hiram Shorey, a merchant tailor, and Gustavus Loehr, a mining engineer, gathered with Harris in Loehr's business office in Room 711 of the Unity Building in downtown Chicago. They discussed Harris' idea that business leaders should meet periodically to enjoy each others company and to enlarge their circle of business and professional acquaintances. The club met weekly; membership was limited to one representative from each business and profession. Though the men didn't use the term Rotary that night, that gathering is commonly regarded as the first Rotary club meeting.

As they continued to convene, members began rotating their meetings among their places of business, hence the name Rotary. After enlisting a fifth member, printer Harry Ruggles, the group was formally organized as the Rotary Club of Chicago.

These early "Rotarians" realised that fellowship and mutual self-interest were not enough to keep a club of busy professionals meeting each week. Reaching out to improve the lives of the less fortunate proved to be an even more powerful motivation.

With this inaugural step towards service, Rotary became the world's first service-club organization.

The Ideals of Rotary

ROTARY'S MOTTO

'Service Above Self'

OBJECT OF ROTARY

To encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service.

Second: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

Third: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life.

Fourth: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

ROTARY'S FOUR WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say or do:

Is it the truth?

Is it fair to all concerned?

Will it build goodwill and better friendships?

Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

Rotary International

Rotary is organised at the international, zone, district, group and club level to carry out its programs of service around the globe. A Rotarian is a member of his or her Rotary club, and the club is a member of the association known as Rotary International (RI). Each club elects its own officers and board of directors and enjoys considerable autonomy within the framework of its constitution and the Rotary International Constitution and Bylaws.

Rotary clubs in turn are grouped together into Rotary districts, each led by a District Governor who is an officer of RI and represents the RI Board of Directors in the field. Currently (2005) there are 1,214,127 Rotarians in 32,176 Clubs, within 529 Rotary Districts throughout 167 Countries and 34 Zones. The District/Club number allocated to Districts and Clubs changes as boundaries and population increase/decrease.

A Summary of the Five Administrative Levels of Rotary

Our District

The 53 Rotary Clubs of Rotary District 9550 cover twenty percent of the Australian continent or about 1.5 million square kms. The district covers approximately the northern half of Queensland and the Northern Territory (NT) combined. In a district this size there is an enormous range of geographic diversity. It includes the lush rainforests of the tropical north coast of Queensland, Kakadu National Park just outside Darwin in the NT and the arid outback of western Queensland and the NT. The remote areas of Thursday Island and the Torres Strait are found in the northern part of our District whilst the south is bounded by Tennant Creek (NT) and Airlie Beach (QLD). The District was extended in 2002 to include the Rotary Club of Dili, in Timor Leste.

Our District is divided into six administrative groups. The Rotary Club of Darwin Sunrise is in Group 1 and comprises all the Darwin, Nhulunbuy, Katherine and Tennant Creek clubs, all within the northern part of the Northern Territory. The Rotary Club of Dili was included in Group 1 in 2002.

The group approach adopted by our district enables much closer linkages between clubs within a defined geographic area. Each group has an Assistant Governor and appointed group representatives for many of the district committees. This devolved structure promotes greatly improved communications within our vast and diverse district.

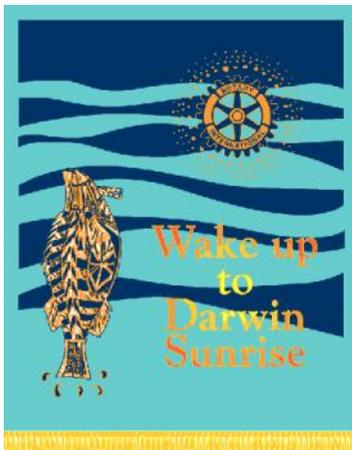

The District Governor (elected annually) is an officer of Rotary International and is directly responsible for the administration of the district. The district headquarters rotates from group to group usually based on the District Governor's location. Similarly many of the district officers and committees come from the District Governor's group for administrative convenience.

Our Club

Our club commenced in 1989 with the distinction of being the first mixed gender and breakfast club in the Northern Territory, and has a membership representing a wide cross section of the Darwin community. We are committed to the ideals of Rotary and in the relatively short history of the club, many community projects have been undertaken and the club has been active in supporting Rotary International and Rotary Foundation's humanitarian programs world-wide.

We are a relatively small group and the club continues to seek out new members in order provide an opportunity for others to share Rotary with us, have them honour their vocation, enliven our meetings and contribute to the ideals of Rotary.

OUR CLUB BANNER

Designed by PDG Guan Tek Yeo.

The design and colour is distinctive and represents elements of our community.

The blue waters of the Arafura Sea and the raising sun as the Rotary emblem radiating the energy of Rotary are coupled with an Aboriginal painting of the famous Barramundi a symbol of the Top End.

Our Club is a constituted body in its own right, affiliated with its Rotary District 9550 and Rotary International. The Club's governing body is an elected Board as provided for in the Club's By-Laws.

General Membership Information

Meeting Place:

The Club meets at the Holiday Inn - Esplanade Hotel at 7 am for fellowship prior to the commencement of the meeting at 7.15 am. Fellowship is an important time to be enjoyed by all, meeting visiting Rotarians, guests and for members rostered for duty to prepare for the meeting.

Annual Dues:

Every member of the Club pays annual dues of $ 300.00 or $150.00 each half year. Rotarians are also able to do a make-up on the web by accessing an Eclub.

A record of attendance should be obtained from the Club visited and given to the Club's Attendance Officer upon return. The make up is regarded as attendance and maintains the Rotarian's attendance percentage.
